Dear Students, Instructors & Master Instructors,

I am very excited about our event this year. I would like to welcome the new competitors and schools that will be participating this year. Our goal is to have a fun-filled event with a family atmosphere. We promote healthy, fair competition for all. We understand the value of competition. We can only grow as students and individuals by the challenges that stand in our path to success. Let our event promote you to new levels of excellence. We welcome you as part of our martial arts family. Good luck, and we hope to see you in the many years to come.

Very truly yours,

Robert P Leclerc

Tournament Director
